CHICKS MAKE FINAL STAND IN PELVILLE FOR 1

Blind Tom of Southern Fails to See Stansbury's Interference and Chicks Are Cheated Out of Decision.

BY WILL HAMILTON

BY WILL HAMILTON

BEW ORLEANS, Aug. 6.—It all depends upon which wide you are rooting for. If for Memphis and Atlanta, you'll figure Umpire Lauzen handed New Orleans, you'll say that Little Jack Stansbury is entitled to a whole lot of credit, even if a vast number of cans here are clamoring for his job, for it was on a little trick of Stansbury's, or an alleged trick, that the Pels won Tuesday's game.

The bases were full and one down in the fourth. Sullivan was on third, Gilbert on second and Stansbury on first. Fielder hit to Lewis, forcing Stansbury out at second and no doubt Fielder would have been doubted at first, but Christenbury threw the ball wild, Sully and Gilbert en scampering over the pan and Fielder going to second. As soon as the ball was recovered the Memphis infield surrounded Lauzon and demanded that he call Fielder out because, they declared. Stansbury had interfered at second with Christenbury's threw. A simple little "hootchle kootchle" of the shoulder by the little soubreits, they said, caused Chris to throw wild. Lauzen let them argue but couldn't see the point. They took it to Johnson and he was just as dense. They argued until it wasn't safe to argue any more and they still claim that had Jackle not picked up Chris's arm with his elbow the score would have been 4 to 3 in the Chicks' favor.

Chicks Hit Ball Hard. Chicks Hit Ball Hard.

Chicks Hit Ball Hard.

Whether they were right or not the Chicks certainty landed on the ball. Their 14 total bases is strong evidence that there wasn't any improvement at all in the brand of pitching the Pels dished out through Jim Roberts and Back Weaver. But there was improvement in the support and except on one or two occasion—for instance when Harry Daubert stood flat-footed on a throw to second—all the boys were on their toes, cutting off or cutting down hits for both Jim and Buck were lucky to get by with even 14 total bases registered against them.

It's a sad case, mates, this New Orleans pitching. Here's hoping another and doesn't set before Dixie Walker arrives on the scene.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—New York owners are hot on the trail of Ban Johnson, following his action in the Carl Mays' case. Insisting that he has given out incorrect facts regarding the matter they intend following the matter to the end in the hopes that Johnson will resign under the pressure. Johnson has stated that Mays quit the club cold whereas Col. Ruppert, part owner of the local American league club, maintains that Mays left the field in Chicago, July 11, after he had been injured by a ball thrown by Catcher Schang.

Col. Ruppert also made public a copy if a telegram intended to show that Manager Jennings of the Detroit Americans had negotiated for Mays' services after the deal on which Mr. Johnson decisred Detroit and other clubs had protested against the Yankees' acquisition of Mays.

Col. Ruppert asserted that neither President Frazeo nor Manager Barrow of the Boston club ever received the message which Mr. Johnson said he sent, inquiring why Mays was not suspended, and characterized as "hasolutely without foundation," Mr. Johnson's assertion that Lieut.-Col. T. L. Huston, joint owner of the Yankees, had stated that New York would not negotiate for Mays.
